Pastor Jeff Perry: St. Louis Family Church
Friday Dec 4th, 2009

Jeff Perry is Senior Pastor of St. Louis Family Church, a life-giving, Jesus-centered, Bible-based church in the St. Louis area. He is also the Founder of Service International, an organization that reaches out with compassion to people in desperate situations—such as floods, tornadoes, hurricanes, tsunamis, and wars—all over the world with a goal of empowering individuals and communities to help themselves through crisis situations. The mission to Honor God and Help People motivates Family Church and Service International. The ministries endeavor to bring the hope-filled message of Jesus to the world in both the everyday and extraordinary aspects of life. BALANCING FAITH AND BUSINESS

Kevin Blair: President & CEO NewGround
Friday Jan 15th, 2010

Balancing our faith with our professional lives has never been more challenging. The turmoil of today and the uncertainty of tomorrow tend to distract us from focusing on our true purpose and from allowing us to lead like Jesus. Our faith and Christian beliefs often conflict with decisions that we must make. Whether we are business leaders, supervisors or just fathers, we all struggle with finding that balance between our faith and roles as servant leaders. Kevin will share how a group of local Christian business leaders formed a group, FAB 10, to address the balance of faith and business. These leaders meet monthly to discussing how to integrate their faith with the managing and leading of those within their individual sphere of influence. This session will share insights from this group.
